Property & History

Guanacaste Province is home to one of the world's only Blue Zones, (places where residents live longer, healthier lives)

Located on the Cacique Peninsula, a secluded and cascading cliffside, centrally situated between two towns with shops, restaurant, and cultural experiences

Site plan developed for a decade to set a new standard for barefoot luxury travel, incorporating modern sustainability principles, local architectural influences and authentic Costa Rican culture

An unusually rich and ecologically interesting piece of land, with panoramic views of the Bay of Papagayo and the Pacific Ocean.

Sustainability

- Award winning team of sustainable architects, designers and planners, including Garnier Arquitectos, Robles Arquitectos, Gensler, and EDSA
- Architecture that integrates seamlessly with the topography of the peninsula and preserves native flora and fauna
- Property that prioritizes walkability, making all amenities and necessities accessible via a short walk
- Fleet of electric vehicles for on-property transportation
- Biophilic design that includes water elements throughout the property, including a spa built atop a natural creek
- Environmentally efficient and innovatively designed heating, cooling, and wastewater systems that contribute to the property's landscape irrigation
- Contributions to the local economy, including job training, professional development opportunities, sustainable construction training, and cultural exchange initiatives

Experiences

- Waldorf Astoria resort amenities include a beach club, cenote-inspired spa with treehouse-style treatment rooms, multiple restaurant venues, state-of-the-art gym, movement studio, outdoor yoga area, and lap- and thermal pools.
- An ecologically rich and dynamic tropical jungle environment with a variety of national parks, trails, caves, volcanoes and waterfalls, all waiting to be explored
- Miles of uninterrupted oceanfront with year-round access to watersports like swimming, paddleboarding, and boating
- A variety of Guanacaste area surf beaches suited to surfers of all ages and skill levels
- Native vegetation and wildlife, including monkeys, sloths, hummingbirds, humpback whales, sea turtles, and much more
